St. Mary's Convent Alumnae Association

The Alumnae Association of St. Mary's Convent Inter College, Allahabad, seeks to be a body aimed at forging new ties and rebuilding old ones amongst our precious ex-students. We look forward to bringing together all those who have been a part of us to renew their bond with their Alma Mater. Come back... to together relive the days gone by, to indulge the memories, to make fresh ones and to bask in the glory of your shared identity as alumnae of a historic Institution.

Objectives

1. To rejuvenate friendships amongst alumnae and also to rekindle your relationship with the school.
2. To cooperate in a mutually constructive manner to further the principles of morality, integrity, humanity, service and values imbibed during the student years at school.
3. To emerge as a socially productive organization while actively engaging in intellectual, cultural and philanthropic activities.
4. To inspire the present students to achieve the ideals that St. Mary's Convent stands for so that they become effective and valuable members of the Alumnae Association later as also of the society at large

Features

1. Organization of an annual alumnae-meet providing an opportunity to all ex-students to keep strengthening their bonds of togetherness and of belongingness to the school.
2. Assistance to batches desirous of celebrating their twenty-fifth or fiftieth jubilee at school.
3. Arrangement of write-ups as contributions from alumnae for the annual school magazine.
4. Career counseling for students of classes ten and twelve by our expert alumnae specializing in various fields.
5. Seminars for parents by our expert alumnae to provide guidance regarding their wards.
6. Social activities like free medical camps, literacy camps, tree plantation drives etc. by interested volunteers from amongst the alumnae.
7. Creation and regular updating of an alumnae database.
8. Provision for unhindered entry into the school premises (beyond school hours) for all alumnae holding their own valid identity cards issued by the Alumnae Association.
9. Discussions, development and advancement of newer ideas for further realization of our objectives.
